Course Description:

This dynamic course explores the intersection of occupational therapy and music therapy by examining the principles of sensory processing, executive functioning, and neurorehabilitation. Participants will delve into the fundamental concepts and principles associated with each domain, gaining a comprehensive understanding of their applications in music therapy practice. Using an interdisciplinary lens, participants will gain knowledge and skills necessary to address sensory processing challenges, enhance executive functioning, and incorporate neurorehabilitation strategies within a music therapy context. This course promotes interdisciplinary collaboration and empowers participants to provide effective and holistic interventions that optimize client outcomes across the lifespan. No pre-requisites are required to take this course.

Learner Objectives:

1. Explore sensory processing concepts and identify sensory-based interventions relevant to music therapy.
2. Investigate opportunities for addressing executive functioning in music therapy.
3. Examine the principles of neurorehabilitation as they apply to music therapy.

Course Schedule:

8:30 - 9:00 AM Registration
9:00 - 10:15 AM Sensory Processing Through the Lifespan
10:15 - 10:30 AM Break
10:30 - 11:30 AM Executive Functioning Skills
11:30 - 11:45 AM Break
11:45 - 1:15 PM Neurorehabilitation for Music Therapists

If Attending Virtually via Zoom:

Participants will be emailed a link to the course on Thursday, September 28. We suggest you join the Zoom meeting 10 minutes prior to the course (so if there are technical difficulties they can be resolved). Please rename yourself to match the name connected to your CBMT account so we can verify attendance. If you have not received your meeting link email by Friday, September 23, please contact us at continuingeducation@musictherapywisconsin.org

Cancellation/Refund Policy:

100% of the registration fee will be refunded if you cancel up to 4 days before the event. After that date, a 75% refund will be given.

Dive Deeper into Sensory, Cognitive, and Motor Skills: Exploring Occupational Therapy Strategies in Music Therapy is approved by the Certification Board for Music Therapists (CBMT) for 4 Continuing Music Therapy Education credits. The Great Lakes Region of the American Music Therapy Association, #P-021, maintains responsibility for program quality and adherence to CBMT policies and criteria.
